GENERAL ENDORSEMENT

1. On or about 11, September 2017, B.C. Strategy UK Ltd. d/b/a Black Cube (the First Defendant) entered into an agreement with an entity known as Tamara Global Holdings 2016 Ltd. ("Tamara Global") to provide investigative services ("the Agreement"). The First Defendant is part of a business intelligence firm which operates globally under the brand Black Cube. The Agreement provided that these services would be undertaken by the appropriate Black Cube entity, dependent upon the nature and geographical requirements of the specific service to be undertaken. Pursuant to this provision, B.C. Strategy Ltd (the Second Defendant) agreed to provide investigative services in accordance with the Agreement. Collectively, B.C. Strategy UK Ltd. d/b/a Black Cube and B.C. Strategy Ltd. are referred to hereinafter as "Black Cube".
2. At the time of entering into the Agreement, Black Cube knew and agreed that the purpose of the Agreement was to provide investigative services for the benefit of and potential use by Catalyst Capital Group Inc. ("Catalyst") and Callidus Capital Corporation ("Callidus") (Catalyst and Callidus both being incorporated in Ontario Canada and together being "the Claimants").

4. Black Cube owed a duty of care to the Claimants under Ontario law alternatively under English law to carry out the investigative services with a high degree of skill and care and in accordance with all applicable laws. In breach of these duties, Black Cube acted in a reckless and negligent manner, including by failing:
 - a. to ensure that its services were and remained confidential;
 - b. to obtain appropriate legal advice to ensure that Black Cube's services were performed in accordance with Ontario law;
 - c. to ensure that the investigative techniques and methods which Black Cube utilized were above reproach and would not expose the Claimants to any claims on the part of any of the persons or entities investigated by Black Cube.

5. In the alternative to the common law claims of negligence asserted herein, the Claimants are entitled to enforce the provisions of the Agreement as parties to a collateral contract or, in the further alternative, pursuant to section 1(1)(b) of the Contract (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.

6. Black Cube was paid substantial remuneration to provide services for the intended benefit of the Claimants in accordance with the expectations set out in paragraphs 1-4 above, or, in the alternative the Agreement.

8. As a consequence of the conduct of Black Cube, including breaches of duty and the negligence, and/or breaches of contract, referred to herein:
 - a. the Claimants have been exposed to liability at the instance of and have been sued in Canada by certain of the persons and entities investigated by Black Cube, including West Face Capital Inc and Gregory Boland (the "West Face Parties") ;

 - d. the Claimants' ability to pursue its own claims under Ontario law or civil conspiracy and defamation against the West Face Parties and the other defendants named in the Pending Proceedings has been delayed and prejudiced.
9. At this juncture it is impossible to fully and accurately determine the total damages sustained by the Claimants as a result of the breaches of duty, negligence and breaches of contract alleged herein, but the Claimants estimate that the compensable losses caused by the Defendants will be substantial, not including any potential damages arising pursuant to the claims for contribution and indemnity referred to in paragraph 10 below.
10. Further or alternatively, the Claimants seek an indemnity from Black Cube in respect of the matters set out at paragraph 7 herein, pursuant to the Civil Liability (Contribution) Act 1978 or otherwise.
11. The Claimants further state that the failure of Black Cube to:
