This matter appeared before me, again on an urgent basis primarily to deal with redactions concerning SBC productions.

Given the looming motion it was agreed that I could release my decision in a very short endorsement.

As I advised counsel at the hearing I am not allowing the proposed redactions and the two letters in question from/to the SEC shall be produced in their entirety.

I have already ruled on this issue generally and the excerpts reviewed with counsel appear to be relevant for the purposes of the motions. As I have earlier indicated, it is reasonable to broadly define relevance given the context of the motions.

Additionally, I reminded the parties that the deemed undertaking remained in force as per the Rules.

Lastly, I urged them to cooperate concerning the filing of documents and any protective orders that may be sought - subject of course to a motion or notice to all persons affected by the order sought.
